The Colonials will take a 11-1-6 record into state tournament play.

Acton-Boxboro 3

St. John's Prep 2

A-B, which went 6-2 in the Dual County League Large Division, led 3-1 thanks to 2 goals by senior forward Jake Hart and a game-opening tally by senior midfielder Jay Hayward, who found the back of the net just two minutes into the game.

Collecting assists were Dan Sincavage and Neel Tripathi. Defenders Jason Murphy and Will Edmonds rose to the occasion with tremendous games. St. John's Prep falls to 8-3-7.

Tewksbury 3

Malden 3

Mike Ferriero scored 2 goals for the second straight game, sparking Tewksbury to a non-league tie with visiting Malden in the rain Saturday.

Nick Bernardo's 6th goal of the season was sandwiched in between Ferriero's 2 midway through the half. Passing out an assist each were Esan Tabrizi, Shiv Patel and Anthony Papageorgiou.

Wingback Ryan Weiss was a defensive standout for Tewksbury (2-12-3), while keeper Mark Bumann made 2 saves.

Central Catholic 3

Andover 1

Central Catholic captured the Merrimack Valley Conference win.

Scoring the goals for the Raiders (9-2-5) were Mukena Mbiye, Mike Bakhtiari and Dan Caruso, who added an assist.

Andover fell to 5-10-3.
