

Lowell, A-B, Lowell Catholic all romp

The Lowell Sun
Lowell Sun

Article Last Updated: 09/21/2007 11:33:22 AM EDT

Wellington Maia scored 2 goals as Lowell High defeated visiting Tewksbury 5-1 in a Merrimack Valley Conference boys' soccer game last night.

Elsewhere, Alex Clark had 2 goals and 1 assist and Lowell Catholic goalkeeper Andrew Larmand made 8 saves as the Crusaders defeated North Cambridge Catholic, 5-0.

Boys soccer

Other local winners were Acton-Boxboro, Groton-Dunstable and Westford Academy.

Lowell Catholic 5

N. Cambridge Catholic 0

Alexi Alejandro, Giovanni Babitoni and Hector Espildora each scored 1 goal for the Crusaders, who improved to 4-1-0.

Alex Dubois had 3 assists.

Acton-Boxboro 3

Tyngsboro 1

Jay Hayward scored in the 29th and 77th minutes and assisted on Dan Sincavage's goal in the 68th minute as the Colonials defeated Dual County League newcomer Tyngsboro.

For Tyngsboro (0-4-1), John Frazier, set up by John Falco, put the Tigers on the board. Sweeper Ryan Cooney and goalkeeper Tony D'Annolfo, who made 12 saves, starred for the Tigers.

A-B goalkeeper D.J. Brock made 4 saves. Defender Dave Cronin and forward Jake Hart (1 assist) also played well for the Colonials (1-0-2).

Dracut 1

Haverhill 1

In a meeting of MVC powers now 3-0-1 in the league, Dracut senior Ryan Miamis earned Dracut the tie by scoring at 27 minutes of the second half following a pass by Mike Silva.

Miamis, who began the game as a sweeper and scored his goal while playing forward, was an all-around standout. Starring on defense were Dan Breton, Kevin Adie and Patrick Taylor. Dracut is 3-0-2 overall.

St. Thomas 1

Pelham 0

The Pythons lost another heartbreaker in Pelham to fall to 1-5-1, as St. Thomas got the game's only goal and improved to 6-1.

Senior forward Ricky Costa, junior defender C.J. Ziogas and junior goalkeeper Ryan Ormsby all played very well for Pelham.

Groton-Dunstable 1

Nashoba Regional 0

Chris Chennelle scored the game's only goal at 22:15, assisted by Derek McCaffrey.

Groton-Dunstable goalkeeper Joakim Monk had 6 saves. The Crusaders improved to 3-0-2.

Westford 2

Lincoln-Sudbury 1

The Grey Ghosts overcame a 1-0 deficit on goals by Robert McCall in the 30th minute and Tarun Subramanian in the 60th minute.

Kenny Bourdeau and Jacob Cruz, respectively, assisted.

Westford gAcademy goalkeeper Ben Mangan had 10 saves. Evan Mahan, Sam Grad, Rory Burk and Ruben Burk also played well for the Grey Ghosts (3-0-1).

Manchester Central 6

Alvirne 1

Max Mahoney scored on a corner kick from Bob Gaudet, but it wasn't nearly enough for the Broncos in the Class L defeat.

Mahoney, Mike O'Donnell and Matt Iogano played strong games for Alvirne.

Aaron Fellows finished with 10 saves.

Lowell 5

Tewksbury 1

Felippe Gonialves and Gideon Gyasi each had 1 goal and 1 assist for Lowell (2-2-1).

Michael Quinones also scored for the Red Raiders. Alex Seun and Kyle Aguir each had 1 assist. Lowell led 2-1 at halftime.

Lowell goalkeeper Zac Roy made 6 saves.

Central Catholic 0

Andover 0

Central keeper Brendan Slein made 14 saves, including five of the point-blank variety, to keep the Raiders (3-1-1) even with host Andover.

Defenders Mike Zappala and K.B. Oshodi submitted strong games for Central, which takes on league-leading Haverhill Tuesday.

Close Window

Send To Printer