

Boys Soccer: Medway mauls Millis

ADVERTISEMENT

GateHouse News Service
Wed Sep 26, 2007, 11:25 PM EDT

Sophomore Pat Halloran scored three goals and added an assist as host Medway defeated Millis 9-0 in Tri-Valley League play. Junior Greg McKay had an assist to go along with a pair of goals while senior Matt Feddersen assisted twice. Senior Spencer Kelley and junior Tyler Pearl combined for the shutout in net for the Mustangs (3-3-2, 3-3-2 TVL).

Millis dropped to 0-8-0.

HOLLISTON 6, WESTWOOD 0:

Matt Donovan had a goal and an assist as Holliston romped past visiting Westwood in Tri-Valley League action last night. Ben Elliott, Will Nesbitt, Austin Goldenberg, Mike Powers and Donovan tallied in the first half and Brian Pendleton added the final goal in the second. Goalkeeper Jake Tracy made two saves for his fifth shutout of the season, and C.J. Dube and Adam Gentile both played strong games for Holliston (5-2-1).

MEDFIELD 1, DOVER-SHERBORN 1:

Brad Richards scored in the ninth minute to give Dover-Sherborn the early lead, but Medfield's Matt Dipisa tied it up midway through the second half as both teams remained unbeaten in the Tri-Valley League draw. D-S goalie Andrew Painter made 12 saves, while Eric Boole also made 12 stops for the Warriors (6-0-1).

The Raiders are now 5-0-3.

HOPKINTON 1, NORTON 1:

Hopkinton's Brian Hurlbut scored in the second half as the Hillers battled visiting Norton to a draw in Tri-Valley league action. Hurlbut tallied with 10 minutes left on an assist from Spencer Hachey to make it 1-0 for Hopkinton (3-3-2). Norton tied it five minutes later on a penalty kick.

NEEDHAM 1, FRAMINGHAM 0:

Senior captain James Stento netted the game winner on a breakaway with just seconds left in the game as Needham downed host Framingham in a key Bay State Conference match, the Flyers' first loss. Framingham sophomore Matheus Goncalves hit the post in the second half after teammate and fellow sophomore Gus Santos had hit the crossbar in the first half. Senior midfielders Adam Skaggs and Jefferson Silva played well for the Flyers (5-1, 4-1 BSC).

NATICK 2, WELLESLEY 1:

Senior captain Mark Kopelman assisted on the first goal, scored by junior Pete Russell at 34:00, and scored the second from sophomore Jonathan Lin at 38:30 as Natick dominated the first 55 minutes en route to a Bay State Conference win over Wellesley. Sophomore Andrew Murphy and junior Ian Schmid also played well for the Redmen (2-4, 2-3 BSC).

The Raiders, who controlled the final 15 minutes, broke the shutout with seven minutes left when Ryan O'Malley scored from Chris Garland.

KING PHILIP 3, FRANKLIN 1:

Junior Sean Hassell scored the lone goal for visiting Franklin as they were downed by Hockomock League rival King Philip. Franklin falls to 1-4-2 overall with an identical Hockomock League mark.

ACTON-BOXBORO 2, LINCOLN-SUDBURY 1:

Senior forward Jake Hart's goal in the 73rd minute lifted visiting Acton-Boxboro over Lincoln-Sudbury in a Dual County League tilt. Senior midfielder Dan Sincavage had the assist. Senior midfielder Jay Hayward scored the first A-B goal off a feed from fellow senior Dewey Schunk. Freshman Dillon Meagher played well defensively in front of senior goalkeeper D.J. Brock, who made eight saves for Acton-Boxboro (3-0-2, 2-0-1 DCL).

MARIAN 1, AUSTIN PREP 0:

Senior captain Dom Jeanpierre scored the game-winner off a Brian Sanz assist, powering visiting Marian past Austin Prep in a Catholic Central League match. Senior goalkeeper Will McNally made four saves for Marian (6-1-1, 4-0-1 CCL), while senior sweeper Sam Casey enjoyed a solid day defensively.

ASSABET 2, BAY PATH 0:

Hoiry Arroyo led off the scoring for Assabet 27min into the first half, which would turn out to be the eventual game-winner in this Colonial Athletic League matchup. Oliver Carvajal added another goal in the second half for the Aztecs (4-0-1), while keeper Christian Guzman recorded the shutout with six saves.

VALLEY TECH 6, NASHOBA TECH 0:

Senior James Dougan scored two goals and teammates Jake Laflamme, James Killalee, Sergio Cunha and Ricardo Harris had single tallies as Valley Tech routed Nashoba Tech. Brett Ramsey notched his third shutout in a row for visiting Valley Tech (6-1-1, 4-0-0 CAL).