

Lowell Catholic picks up fifth win of season

The Lowell Sun
Lowell Sun

Article Launched:09/27/2007 11:37:39 AM EDT

Hector Espildora and Jae Hyun scored 2 goals apiece as Lowell Catholic defeated Matignon, 5-2, in a Catholic Central League Small School Division boys soccer game yesterday.

Boys soccer

In Dual County League play, Westford Academy and Acton-Boxboro were winners by 1 goal and Tyngsboro battled Boston Latin to a 1-1 tie.

Westford Academy 1

Weston 0

Tarun Subramanian scored his 8th goal in 6 games as the Grey Ghosts remained undefeated (5-0-1, 2-0-1 DCL Large) with this victory at Weston.

Reuben Burk's crossing pass was headed in by Subramanian during the 19th minute of the second half.

Keeper Ben Mangan made 6 saves for his 4th shutout, while other standouts for WA included Cody Heusmann, Ian Hunter, Tim Ryan and Greg Mandeville.

Lowell Catholic 5

Matignon 2

Matt Cavanaugh potted the other Crusader score.

Tommy Joyce and Alex Dubois had 2 assists each.

Giovanni Babitoni also chipped in with an assist.

Andrew Larmand made 4 saves in goal for Lowell Catholic (5-1-1).

Boston Latin 1

Tyngsboro 1

Quinn Worden scored Tyngsboro's goal with an assist from Kyle Turgeon 32 minutes into the second half.

Boston Latin took a 1-0 lead late in the first half.

Tony D'Annolfo made 6 saves in goal for the Tigers (0-4-3).

Acton-Boxboro 2

Lincoln-Sudbury 1

A-B broke a scoreless game in the second half as Jay Hayward, assisted by Dewey Schunk, scored a goal.

Jake Hart added the winner in the 73rd minute off an assist from Dan Sincavage. That goal came when Hart headed home a free kick.

D.J. Brock had 8 saves in net for undefeated A-B (3-0-2) and freshman Dillon Meagher was outstanding on defense.

Blackstone Valley 6

Nashoba Tech 0

Vikings goalkeeper Kyle Jones made 13 saves in the Colonial Athletic League game played in Westford.

Also playing well were outside fullbacks Brendan Kelly and Nathan Piper.

Nashoba trailed only 2-0 at the half.

Close Window

Send To Printer