

Rams stay perfect with a narrow win

The Lowell Sun
Lowell Sun

Article Last Updated:

Shawsheen Tech remained undefeated with a 2-1 Commonwealth Athletic Conference boys soccer victory over host Northeast Tech yesterday in Wakefield, senior midfielder Brian Conway notching the clinching goal with 10 minutes left in the game.

Boys soccer

Elsewhere locally, undefeated Concord-Carlisle High had a first-half goal from senior forward Mike Burke stand up in a 1-0 Dual County League showdown triumph over visiting Westford Academy at Memorial Field.

Shawsheen 2

Northeast 1

Sophomore forward Luke Ribeiro headed in his 5th goal 6 minutes into the game to boost the second-place Rams (6-0-3, 5-0-2 CAC Large) to a 1-0 halftime lead, and Conway's 6th on a header came after NE tied it with a penalty kick midway through the second half.

Jeff James and Eric McLaughlin had an assist each for Shawsheen, keeper Mike Lamonica made 15 saves and other standouts included fullbacks Calvin McMillan, Kyle Breingan, Leo Ribeiro and halfback Rich Madigan.

Concord-Carlisle 1

Westford 0

Mike Burke's 7th goal of the season was assisted by senior midfielder Theo Terris. It came on a header after a free kick and an original shot that hit the crossbar and bounced out to Burke.

Rival goalkeepers James Smith of C-C and Ben Mangan of Westford made 6 saves each. Smith was credited with his 6th shutout.

The Patriots improve to 8-0-1 overall, including 4-0 in DCL play, while Westford fell to 6-2-1 overall.

Littleton 13

North Central 0

Senior forward Devin Crory scored a first-half hat trick, and finished with 4 goals overall, as the Tigers (3-6) stampeded past visiting North Central Charter of Fitchburg in this non-leaguer.

Cassio Preza and Sam Susla contributed 2 goals each, Mike Buraczynski had 1 goal, 3 assists and other singletons were netted by Steve Perez, Matt Mizzoni, Kevin Dargin and Nathan Canfield.

Mizzoni played the first half and Brian Floss the second 40 minutes in net for Littleton, which led 7-0 at the break on the way to its second shutout.

Acton-Boxboro 1

Bedford 0

Senior forward Jake Hart connected in the first minute of play to account for all the game's scoring. Dan Sincavage, a senior midfielder, got the assist on the goal.

Senior goalkeeper D.J. Brock recorded his 4th shutout of the season.

Acton-Boxboro (5-0-3, 3-0-1 DCL Large) also received tremendous play from senior midfielder Dewey Schunk, who hit the post and forced a pair of great saves by the Bedford goalkeeper.

Wilmington 2