

Rams still perfect; Gryphons impress

The Lowell Sun
Lowell Sun

Article Last Updated: 10/11/2007 12:45:12 PM EDT

First-half goals by Craig Pease and Ryan Ahern were used as a springboard for the undefeated Shawsheen Tech boys soccer team, as the Rams toppled host North Shore Tech, 3-1, yesterday in a Commonwealth Athletic Conference game in Beverly.

Boys soccer

Elsewhere in the CAC, Greater Lowell Tech knocked off Greater Lawrence Tech, 5-1.

Shawsheen 3

North Shore 1

Ahern's goal midway through the first half snapped a 1-1 tie, and then Eric McLaughlin added the insurance tally in the second half as Shawsheen improved to 8-0-4 overall and 6-0-3 CAC.

Passing out an assist each were Matt Blanchard, Andrew Puccio, Mike Terk and Rich Madigan.

Keepers Mike Lamonica (first half) and Josh Luthian combined for 6 saves as Shawsheen finished with an 18-8 edge in shots at net.

Defensive standouts for the Rams were halfbacks Leo Ribeiro and fullbacks Mark Sarro, Kyle Breingan and Calvin McMillan.

Gr. Lowell 5

Gr. Lawrence 1

Eddie Silva paced the Gryphons offense with a goal and 2 assists.

John Golden, James Kihiko, Giovanni Guavara and Jon Alves netted 1 goal each. Ryan Silva and Yorlin Grajales combined for the win in goal for the Gryphons (7-3-2).

Acton-Boxboro 3

Westford 2

First-half goals by Dan Sincavage, Jay Hayward and Chris Gayowski lifted the Colonials (6-0-5, 4-0-1 DCL) past Westford Academy.

Jake Hart chipped in with an assist for Acton-Boxboro. Colonial keeper D.J. Brock made 6 saves.

Lowell Catholic 5

Cathedral 1

Lowell Catholic senior Jae Hyun recorded a hat trick in the first half to give the Crusaders (7-2-1, 6-0-1 CCL) a 3-0 lead in their Catholic Central League match up. Hyun added an assist in the second half.

Also getting in on the scoring were Hector Espildora (1 goal, 2 assists) and Kosta Hatzipetres, who scored off an Alex Clark corner kick.

Lowell Catholic got a solid effort from sophomore goalkeeper Andrew Larmand (8 saves).

Also playing well for the Crusaders were stopper Jesse Graham and midfielder Eric Savard, who celebrated his birthday with his best performance of the season.

Groton-Dunstable 2