

Girls Soccer: Late goal lifts Westborough

ADVERTISEMENT

GateHouse News Service
Wed Sep 26, 2007, 11:33 PM EDT

Center midfielder Annette Kristiansen scored the game-winner on a free kick with two minutes left, as Westborough topped host Groton-Dunstable in Mid-Wach B action. The senior captain won it with a screened boot from 25 yards out. Emily Mongeau and Lorna Collins anchored a solid back line on defense for Westborough (5-1, 3-0 Mid-Wach B).

HUDSON CATHOLIC 5, BAY PATH 0:

Junior Shauna Geagan scored three times for Hudson Catholic as it blanked visiting Colonial Athletic League rival Bay Path. Juniors Emily Barrett and Brittnay Ferrichia each added a score for the Green Wave (2-4-1, 1-1-1 CAL). Junior goalkeeper Ashley Carnes made five saves, earning her second shutout of the year.

HOPEDALE 3, BROMFIELD 0:

Senior goalkeeper Shanna Lathrop recorded her fifth shutout of the season, making six saves in Hopedale's non-league win over visiting Bromfield. Rachel Miranda and Jessica Peacock each had a goal and an assist for Hopedale (7-1). After Miranda gave Hopedale a 2-0 lead off a feed from Katie Bresciani, Peacock connected on a diving header off a Miranda corner kick for the third and final goal. Senior Lekia Cowen had the other goal for the Blue Raiders.

UXBRIDGE 1, MILLBURY 0:

Stephanie Seagrave scored the game-winner in the 54th minute off a cross by Lindsay McQuade to lead Uxbridge past Millbury in this SWCL matchup. McQuade has recorded six assists in the past three games from the midfield for the Spartans (8-1, 3-0 SWCL).

KING PHILIP 2, FRANKLIN 0:

Bridgette McGovern scored two goals as King Philip blanked host Franklin in a Hockomock League game. Franklin falls to 4-3-1, 4-2-1 in the league.

KING PHILIP 2, FRANKLIN 0:

Bridgette McGovern scored two goals as King Philip blanked host Franklin in a Hockomock League game. Franklin falls to 4-3-1 (4-2-1 Hockomock).

MEDWAY 3, MILLIS 2:

Stefanie Danehy, Arianna Burke and Alex Carroll also scored for Medway, as the Mustangs (6-1-1) took a 3-0 lead and held on for the Tri-Valley League win. Millis' Sheena Parand had a goal and an assist, while Ashley Fucci also scored for the Mohawks (3-5-1, 3-4-1 TVL).

HOLLISTON 2, WESTWOOD 0:

Junior Kerry Ritucci scored from senior Sam Alper midway through the first half, anssenior Rachel Finer notched a penalty kick 2:56 into the second half as host Holliston blanked Westwood. Anna Corridan and Anne Countway played strong defensive contests for the Panthers (6-1-1).

HOPKINTON 2, NORTON 0:

Junior Michelle Coburn scored off a corner from Jen Tannenbaum, sophomore Nikki Somadelis notched an unassisted goal and senior Katie Fusano played a strong overall game as visiting Hopkinton (3-4-1) blanked Norton in Tri-Valley League play.

WELLESLEY 3, NATICK 2:

Sophomore Carly Dee scored an unassisted goal in the 34th minute and then assisted on Mary Louise Dixon's in the 55th minute ahead of Kelly Seyfarth's unassisted tally in the 72nd minute as Wellesley (2-5, 2-4 BSC) edged Natick in Bay State Conference action.

For the Redmen (1-4-1), sophomore Britt Halloran scored both goals, one midway through the opening half with Lindsay Raffol assisting and one with 10 minutes remaining that was unassisted.

MARIAN 2, AUSTIN PREP 1:

Senior stopper Meg McCann netted two second-half goals to lift Marian past visiting Austin Prep in a Catholic Central Large matchup. After a scoreless first half, McCann tallied at 2:13 on a penalty kick and then made it 2-0 at 7:28 on a direct kick from 20 yards out. Erin Bradley and Jess Morin were stalwarts on defense for Marian (3-6).

ACTON-BOXBORO 2, LINCOLN-SADBURY 1: Sophomore Katie Sisk scored unassisted in the game's 30th minute to give Lincoln-Sudbury the distinction of being the first team to score on powerhouse Acton-Boxboro this season, but it wasn't enough as the undefeated Colonials (6-0) topped the Warriors (4-2) in Dual County League action.

A-B took a 2-0 lead when Hayley Brock scored from Cassie Wagner in the 4th minute and Charlotte Davis scored from Brock in the 22nd minutes.

WESTFORD ACADEMY 3, WESTON 1:

Senior Courtney Davenport scored from classmate Bridget McCurdy three minutes into the game, but the lead didn't hold up as host Westford Academy came away with the Dual County League win over the 2-3-1 Wildcats.