

Veilleux scores 2 to lift WA

The Lowell Sun
Lowell Sun

Article Launched:09/27/2007 11:37:34 AM EDT

Jocelyn Veilleux scored a pair of first-half goals, and set up the second-half insurance tally by Rory Tito, as the Westford Academy girls soccer team tripped up Weston, 3-1, in Dual County League play yesterday.

Girls soccer

Westford 3

Weston 1

Veilleux, who ranks among the DCL girls scoring leaders, connected twice 10 minutes apart in the opening half for the Grey Ghosts (5-1).

Tito's clincher came with 10 minutes left.

Liz Dellano and Alexa St. Martin set up the Veilleux goals, while keeper A.J. Millett finished with 9 saves.

Defensive standouts were outside fullbacks Jess Royal and Rachel LeBlanc, along with outside midfielder Jen Larrick.

Acton-Boxboro 2

Lincoln-Sudbury 1

Sophomore sharpshooter Hayley Brock paced the Colonial offense with a goal (her 11th) and assist.

Charlotte Davis netted the other Acton-Boxboro goal.

Carley Cesare and Jessie Wigginseach split time in goal for the Colonials (6-0, 3-0 DCL).

The goal scored by Lincoln-Sudbury was the first A-B has allowed this season.

Matignon 4

Lowell Catholic 1

Megan Saffie netted Lowell Catholic's goal with an assist from Gennessa Hansen.

Chelsea Rafferty made 10 saves in goal for the Crusaders (3-4).

Tyngsboro 3

Boston Latin 3

Ashley Clement scored off a give-and-go with Chelsea Glavin to earn Tyngsboro the tie.

Becca Wickens and Glavin added first-half goals for the Tigers, with Ashley Sanz picking up an assist.

Frances Duncan made 12 saves in the THS net including two breakaways in the last minutes. Tyngsboro is 1-5-1.

Close Window

Send To Printer