

Soccer stars of the week

The Boston Globe

October 16, 2007

GirlsKim Clooney, Weymouth - In three games, Clooney had two goals and five assists.Martha Dane, Acton-Boxboro - Dane scored an unassisted winning goal one minute into the second half to lead the No. 1-ranked Colonials past Dual County League rival Westford, 2-1.Bridget Dahlberg, Newton South - Dahlberg had three first-half goals in the Lions' win over Dracut Thursday.Kaylee Bolton, Sandwich - In a 3-2 win over Barnstable, Bolton had a goal and two assists.Alex Bengston, Andover - Bengston scored three goals against Dracut for the MVC Large leaders, giving her nine on the year.Tom Severo, Billerica - Severo earned his 300th career win as coach of the Indians, a 2-0 victory over Chelmsford in Merrimack Valley Conference play. Severo is in his 24th season as a head coach.Boys*Tim Weis, Belmont - Weis made Belmont's 2-0 week possible, scoring a second-half hat trick to beat Woburn, 3-2, and adding a goal in a 3-1 win over Wakefield as the Marauders kept their postseason hopes alive.Patrick O'Loughlin, Hull - The Pirates won their first game in three years, beating Mashpee, 3-1, led by two goals from O'Loughlin. Hull had lost to Mashpee, 6-1, earlier in the year.Michael Soboff, Newton South - The Lions went 2-0 with Soboff scoring seven goals in wins over Boston Latin and Methuen.Keith Rose, Dighton-Rehoboth - The sophomore registered a hat trick as the Falcons held off Case, 3-2.Adam Harrison, Medfield - Another undefeated week for the Warriors was made possible by the freshman, who scored three goals in a seven-minute span in a win over Ashland.Coaches can nominate Stars of the Week by calling 800-232-2860 Sunday between 1 and 5:30 p.m. ■